GAME SHOWS

Game shows are very popular television programmes. One famous British show is Who wants to be a Millionaire?. On the show, people answer a number of questions. The questions are easy at first, but they become more difficult. Between 1998 and 2008, fifteen players won the top prize of £1,000,000! This show became popular around the world, and people played the game in countries like the USA, Spain and Japan.

The first ever TV game show was in 1938. It was a British show called Spelling Bee. The presenter was a man called Freddie Grisewood. He had short, dark hair and glasses. Freddie asked people on the show to spell words. The person with the most correct words won. The show wasn't very exciting because the game was really easy!

- 1 More than twenty people won a million pounds in a British game show.

- 2 Some Spanish people played Who wants to be a Millionaire?.

- 3 Who wants to be a Millionaire? is older than Spelling Bee.
