My name is Kerem. I live in Turkey and I normally study at Ankara High School. But it's July, and I'm not at high school now. In fact, I'm not even in Turkey. I'm in Brighton, in the UK! I'm here for three weeks on a language course.

I'm studying English at the Ocean Summer School in Brighton. I'm not with my parents – I'm living with a local family in Brighton. They can't speak a word of Turkish, so I speak English all the time!

Every morning I take the bus to school. We study English grammar and we learn new vocabulary every day. Sometimes we listen to English radio programmes, and we often have discussions in class. I always listen carefully to the teacher because I want to improve my pronunciation.

We don't have any homework, so we're free in the evenings. I occasionally watch TV, but everyone speaks very quickly, so it isn't easy to understand. I usually chat with the family instead. I'm having fun, and my English is definitely getting better!
