

Unit 6 Speaking Test

About you

1 Talk about asking for and giving advice.

- When was the last time you gave advice? What advice did you give?
- Where do you go for advice about problems at school, worries about your future career or friendship concerns?
- What do you think the biggest problems are that teenagers worry about?
- What's the best piece of advice you've been given? Who gave it to you?

Role-play

2 Complete the dialogue with the phrases in the box. Then practise the dialogue.

Don't panic Have you spoken What can I do
What would you do my advice

- A Is anything the matter?
B Yes, I'm worried about finding a job.
1 _____?
A 2 _____ to a careers advisor?
B Yes, I have, but I'm even more confused now.
A 3 _____! It's quite common to not know what you want to do.
B 4 _____ if you were me?
A My advice would be to go online and research different jobs. See if anything matches your skills and interests. Have you spoken to anyone else about this?
B No, only you.
A Well, 5 _____ is to speak to your teachers, too. They're there to help you.
B Thanks!

EXTENSION Imagine your friend has a problem. Find out what it is and give advice.

- A Ask if anything is the matter.
B Respond.
A Ask if your partner has tried something.
B Respond.
A Tell your partner not to worry.

- B Ask for advice.
A Give advice.
B Thank your partner.

Photo description

3 Describe the photos.

Photo A

- What's happening in the photo? Who are the people?
- How do you think they feel?
- What do you think the problem could be?
- What advice would you give them?

Photo B

- What's happening in the photo? Who are the people?
- How do you think they feel?
- What do you think the problem could be?
- What advice would you give them?

EXTENSION Answer the questions.

- Have you ever had any problems like these? What did you do about it?
- What arguments do you have with your friends?
- What's the best way to deal with a problem at school?